

Project: VE Day!

This Friday it will be the 75th anniversary of VE Day! I'm not going to tell you about it and what it is – that's all part of your task!

- What is VE Day? What does it stand for and why is it celebrated? Present this however you would like! This could be a poster, a PowerPoint, or anything else! You could display this in your window!
- Create your own bunting! There is a link below to download a template

- Hold your own 'street party' either in your garden, or at home! Help to prepare the food – it could be like an afternoon tea, or using traditional recipes from the era of the original VE Day! Don't forget the menu! Can you plan your celebration – maybe which traditional games you could include?

- Check out this website for information on live streams and for a downloadable home learning pack (KS2)
- The Queen will make a speech on VE Day; can you create a piece of research about her? This could be in the style of a biography, a timeline of her life, a family tree, a piece of artwork for example
- Who was Winston Churchill? What was he famous for?
- Can you name any traditional artists/ songs from the era of the original VE Day?
- Can you create your own piece of writing about VE Day – this could be in the form of a poem, a report using the information you have researched, a biography of The Queen/ Winston Churchill, or it could be a newspaper report about your own VE Day celebration!
- You may have seen commemorative mugs at your house, or maybe at a relative's house to celebrate Royal Weddings and other events. Design your own mug to commemorate VE Day's 75th anniversary!
- Have a paper plane competition!
- Complete the Morse Code cracking activity uploaded to our website
- Build a WW2 spitfire glider using the template
