

Crash!

Story starter!

Lawrence was injured, afraid, lost and completely alone. He had been thrown viciously from the aircraft after the flock of birds had attacked the propellers.

As he laid there, listening to his racing heart, he wondered what would happen to him.

How would he make it out alive?

Question time!

How has the helicopter crashed?

What do you think he should try to do next?

Who might be able to help in this situation?

What do you think you would do if you were in a similar situation?

Why do you think he is afraid?

What might he be afraid of?

Sentence challenge!

Using an adverb at the beginning of a sentence makes your writing more interesting.

Add an adverb at the beginning of these sentences:

_____, he wondered where he was.

_____, the helicopter was whirring.

Now write your own sentence and remember to use an adverb at the beginning.

Perfect picture!

Draw a picture of what Lawrence might have seen before the helicopter crashed.
