

Homes Now and Then (Living Rooms)

Place the two images below side by side.

Children to then spot as many differences as they can between the two pictures and colour in all the things that are different.

Children could use the same colour for each difference, e.g. colour the candles and light switches in red.

